"If we know the story, then we have got to share it." Hero Shiosaki,
Hero Shiosaki is a 90-year-old veteran of the U.S. Army, who served as a member of the famed 442nd Regimental Combat Team, a Japanese American segregated unit in World War II, that demonstrated their patriotism while their parents and friends were behind barbed wire in camps created as a result of the presidential Executive Order 9066. Join us to learn about the military aspect of the Japanese American incarceration experience through video excerpts and the personal story of a hero.
